

The County of San Mateo has some 42 citizen advisory boards and commissions. In addition to ongoing recruitment efforts, the Board of Supervisors conducts an event to introduce the community to these important public service opportunities. The evening forum provides residents with a better understanding of the roles and responsibilities of a commissioner and the need for broad and diverse community participation. Click here to view the

announcement

for the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, Boards and Commission recruitment event, 6 to 8 p.m., Tuesday, January 19, 2010, Board Chambers, 400 County Center, Redwood City.